GREETINGS AND EXPLANATIONS

Well folks, I had expected to offer you a thrilling assortment of choice new Iris this summer having planned and planted to that effect. After a long growing season with fine fields of new plants looking their very best, we experienced the most phenomenal Winter Blitzkrieg in our history, when early in November without even a frost we were plunged from summer growing conditions into near zero weather and in two hours time, great beds of plants, as well as orchards, elms, and shrubs were completely wiped out.

So at this time I can only offer you those varieties which I feel I can properly handle. So folks that is why my price list is so late.

Reducing the size of my Catalog will in no way reduce the quality of my plants nor the careful service which is extended to every order.

I want to thank you again for your loyal and valued patronage the past season and for your glowing testimonials and hearty recommendations. May I have the opportunity of pleasing you again.

Yours sincerely,

BLANCHE COVERT
